

Conviction, Guilt, and Shame

Summer Series: Out of the Depths

What is conviction? In short, conviction is _____ of guilt.

Conviction, guilt, and shame are all fruitful feelings when they lead us to _____ and _____ before _____.

1. Sinners are convicted toward _____.

The Holy Spirit _____ the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment. (John 16:8)

2. Saints are convicted toward _____.

a. The believer's _____: We are sanctified (set apart in Christ)!

b. The believer's _____: We are being sanctified (set apart to live like Christ)!

c. The believer's _____ is from God!

d. The believer's _____ is promised!

3. Chastened Children

Discipline is _____ and a _____.

4. Concerning _____

When we act with Godly sorrow, we are able to experience _____ and move on to _____ for God.